Praise to the Lord

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty the King of creation;
O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation.

All ye who hear, Now to His altar draw near,
Joining in glad adoration.

Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work and defend thee;
Surely His goodness and mercy shall daily attend thee.

Ponder anew what the Almighty can do,
Who with His love doth befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore Him!
All that hath life and breath come now with praises
before Him!
Let the Amen sound from his people again,
Now as we worship before Him.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading

1 Timothy 6:13-16

Matthew Gries
Board of Directors

Beloved:

I charge you before God, who gives life to all things,
and before Christ Jesus,
who gave testimony under Pontius Pilate
for the noble confession,
to keep the commandment without stain or reproach
until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ that the blessed and only ruler will make manifest at the proper time,
the King of kings and Lord of lords,
who alone has immortality, who dwells in unapproachable light,
and whom no human being has seen or can see.
To him be honor and eternal power. Amen.

Responsorial

Psalm 100:1b-2,3,4,5

Kate George
Cantor

Come with joy into the presence of the Lord!

Sing joyfully to the LORD all you lands;
serve the LORD with gladness;
come before him with joyful song.

R. Come with joy into the presence of the Lord.

Know that the LORD is God;
he made us, his we are;
his people, the flock he tends.

R. Come with joy into the presence of the Lord.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving,
his courts with praise;
Give thanks to him; bless his name.

R. Come with joy into the presence of the Lord.

For he is good:
the LORD, whose kindness endures forever,
and his faithfulness, to all generations.

R. Come with joy into the presence of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Blessed are they who have kept the word with a generous heart and yield a harvest through perseverance.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

Luke 8:4-15

Tom Gotschall

When a large crowd gathered, with people from one town after another journeying to Jesus, he spoke in a parable.

“A sower went out to sow his seed.

And as he sowed, some seed fell on the path and was trampled, and the birds of the sky ate it up.

Some seed fell on rocky ground, and when it grew, it withered for lack of moisture.

Some seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew with it and choked it.

And some seed fell on good soil, and when it grew, it produced fruit a hundredfold.”

After saying this, he called out,

“Whoever has ears to hear ought to hear.”

Then his disciples asked him what the meaning of this parable might be.

He answered,

“Knowledge of the mysteries of the Kingdom of God has been granted to you;

but to the rest, they are made known through parables

so that they may look but not see, and hear but not understand.

“This is the meaning of the parable.

The seed is the word of God.

Those on the path are the ones who have heard, but the Devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts that they may not believe and be saved.

Those on rocky ground are the ones who, when they hear, receive the word with joy, but they have no root; they believe only for a time and fall away in time of temptation.

As for the seed that fell among thorns, they are the ones who have heard, but as they go along, they are choked by the anxieties and riches and pleasures of life, and they fail to produce mature fruit.

But as for the seed that fell on rich soil, they are the ones who, when they have heard the word, embrace it with a generous and good heart, and bear fruit through perseverance.”

Homily

Archbishop Gregory J. Hartmayer, OFM Conv.

Prayers of the Faithful

Jean Harvey Johnson
Board of Directors

Eucharistic Prayer

Here I Am, Lord

I, the Lord of sea and sky,
I have heard my people cry.
All who dwell in dark and sin
My hand will save.
I, who made the stars of night,
I will make their darkness bright.
Who will bear my light to them?
Whom shall I send?
Refrain:
Here I am, Lord. Is it I, Lord?
I have heard you calling in the night
I will go, Lord, if you lead me.
I will hold your people in my heart.

I, the Lord of snow and rain,
I have borne my people's pain.
I have wept for love of them.
They turn away.
I will break their hearts of stone,
Give them hearts for love alone.
I will speak my word to them.
Whom shall I send? R:/
I, the Lord of wind and flame,
I will tend the poor and lame.
I will set a feast for them.
My hand will save.
Finest bread I will provide
Till their hearts be satisfied.
I will give my gift to them.
Whom shall I send? R:/

Memorial Acclamation

Communion Rite

AMEN

Mass of Creation by Marty Haugen. Copyright 1984, 2010 by GIA Publications. OneLicense A701934

The Lord's Prayer

Lamb of God

Act of Spiritual Communion

“My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire you with all my heart. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, I ask you to come spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already in my heart and unite myself to you completely. Please do not let me ever be separated from you. Amen.”

- St. Alphonsus Liguori

I Am the Bread of Life

I am the bread of life,
You who come to me shall not hunger;
And who believe in me shall not thirst.
No one can come to me unless the Father beckons.

Refrain:

And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up,
And I will raise you up on the last day.
The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world,
And if you eat of this bread, you shall live for ever,
You shall live for ever. R: /

Unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man
And drink of his blood, and drink of his blood,
You shall not have life within you. R: /

I am the Resurrection, I am the life.
If you believe in me, even though you die,
You shall live for ever. R: /

Yes, Lord we believe that you are the Christ,
The Son of God, who has come into the world. R: /

DEO GRATIAS
Thanks be to God

Go Make of All Disciples

“Go make of all disciples.” We hear the call, O Lord.
That comes from you, our Father, in your eternal Word.
Inspire our ways of learning through earnest, fervent prayer,
And let our daily living reveal you everywhere.

“Go make of all disciples.” We at your feet would stay
Until each life’s vocation shows forth your holy way.
We cultivate the nature God plants in ev’ry heart,
Revealing in our witness the Master Teacher’s art.

“Go make of all disciples.” We welcome your command,
“Lo, I am with you always.” We take your guiding hand.
The task looms large before us – we follow without fear.
In heav’n and earth your power shall bring God’s kingdom here.

The Deo Gratias Society

This society consists of people who have made a bequest or other estate gift to the Catholic Foundation, any of its funds, a parish, a Catholic school, or the Archdiocese. The Society also includes donors who have given $5,000 or more to an existing or newly created fund. The Latin name meaning “Thanks be to God” denotes our prayerful thanks to and for our generous members of the society. In the same way, many donors make their decision to leave a Catholic Legacy as a special act of thanksgiving to God for His many blessings.

The Founders Society

The original members of the Founders Society contributed funds to begin the Catholic Foundation. Many of those generous people served on the formation committee or as founding board members. The Society continues to grow with donors who have given $5,000 or more to the Catholic Foundation Endowment Fund. Their gifts support our ministry and strengthen our future. We list the members of the Founders Society with profound gratitude and respect.
