$1,325,460 Distributed to Catholic Churches, Ministries, Nonprofits, and Schools

ATLANTA – The Catholic Foundation is pleased to announce that over $1.3 million in designated grant distributions were sent to organizations during April. 247 funds managed by the Foundation were eligible for distribution and organizations elected to receive grants from 161 of those funds.

Designated grant distributions are grants made from an endowment fund that designates a particular beneficiary or beneficiaries in the fund agreement. These grants do not require an application and organizations may elect whether to receive the distribution or leave the eligible distribution in the fund to continue growing. Designated grant distribution notifications are sent once a year.

The St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Endowment Fund granted its second round of distributions this year. The fund was established in 2019 by an anonymous donor who donated her late husband's coin collection to create the fund. Named for the patron saint of Catholic schools in the United States, the fund's beneficiaries are Monsignor Donovan Catholic High School in Athens, Our Lady of Mercy Catholic High School in Fayetteville, St. Joseph's Catholic School in Athens, St. Mary's Catholic School in Rome, and St. Peter Claver Catholic School in Decatur. Each school received $960 from the endowment fund to be used for student scholarships.

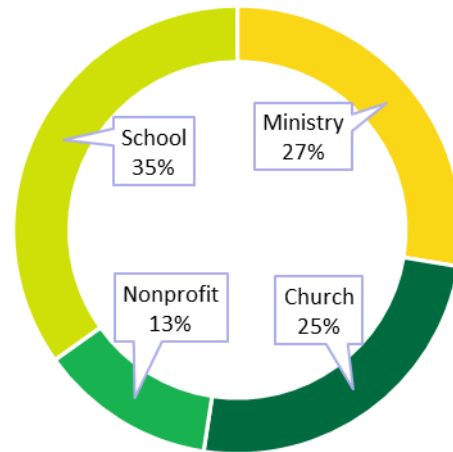

If you are interested in contributing to or starting an endowment fund to perpetually benefit a parish, mission, ministry, nonprofit, or school you care deeply about, please contact us.
