The Catholic Foundation of North Georgia is pleased to announce the addition of the following members to the Board of Directors. They began their board terms on July 1, 2025.

Paul Armstrong, Grants Committee, holds a Bachelor of Science in Mining and Electrical Engineering as well as a Masters in Industrial Administration. Before retirement, Paul spent 28 years with General Electric with a variety of roles leading teams in manufacturing, logistics, sourcing, and project management. Currently, Paul is a member of the Catholic Camps Ministry Advisory Board at Elon University and is coaching middle school volleyball. His greatest joys are his two daughters, Sara and Paige, whom he raised with his late wife, Renee, who passed away in 2022. He is a parishioner of St. Joseph Catholic Church in Marietta.

Rick Nelson, Investment Committee, holds a Bachelor of Science from St. Francis College and a Masters in Business Administration from Mercer University. After a tenure as the CEO/CIO of StableRiver Capital Management, Rick moved his team to Buckhead Capital Management in 2015, where he now works as the Director of Fixed Income. He has consulted for numerous Catholic dioceses and organizations for over 20 years. Rick is also involved at Marist School, where he has served on the foundation committee, the capital campaign committee, and as Chair of the new parents committee. Rick and his wife, Margaret, have four children and are proud grandparents of nine grandchildren. He is a parishioner of St. Jude the Apostle Catholic Church.

Rebecca Welsh O'Connor, Finance Committee, holds a Bachelor of Art in International Relations from the University of Southern California and a Masters in Business Administration from Georgetown University. Her prior experience includes financial accounting at a construction company and providing financial and strategic consulting for the banking and investment banking industry in New York. She currently serves as Treasurer for OCD Management, Inc. Rebecca has chaired a local foundation, A Million Matters Inc., and established a foundation, Ribbons of Hope – Invest in Women, Inc., providing assistance to women and their children. She and her husband, Patrick, have three children. Rebecca is a parishioner of the Cathedral of Christ the King.
