Catholic Foundation of North Georgia Announces Spring 2026 Catholic Community Grant Awards

The Catholic Foundation's Board of Directors awarded twenty-two Catholic Community Grants totaling $150,00 for the spring grant cycle, which is open to Catholic schools. Funding for these grants is provided by the Conrads Family Education Fund, which supports Catholic schools located in the Archdiocese of Atlanta.

The Catholic Foundation of North Georgia helps Catholics with faith-inspired giving and legacy planning while stewarding funds for the long-term sustainability of the Catholic organizations in our community. Through the management and growth of the funds, grants are made to support the nonprofits, parishes, and schools serving the general community within the boundaries of the Archdiocese of Atlanta.

The following grants were awarded:

Blessed Trinity Catholic High School, Roswell: to fund a new camera and lens system to enhance the quality of daily school news broadcasts, campus event coverage, and overall media productions.

Christ the King School, Atlanta: to expand the band program.

Cristo Rey Atlanta Jesuit High School, Atlanta: to support a two-year campaign to significantly promote the health and wellness of students.

Donovan Catholic School, Athens: to replace outdated theology and science textbooks to strengthen Catholic formation and support rigorous, faith-integrated academic instruction.

Holy Redeemer Catholic School, Johns Creek: to fund a platform to streamline school communication, keeping parents informed through one secure, efficient, and accessible system.

Holy Spirit Preparatory School, Atlanta: to install a gym partition, a stage partition, and add floor protection to improve safety and shared use of spaces.

Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic School, Atlanta: to purchase and install new blinds in classrooms.

Marist School, Atlanta: to enhance campus security by installing new door hardware on classrooms in the Ivy Street Center.

Notre Dame Academy, Duluth: to purchase and install upgraded interactive board technology in classrooms.

Our Lady of the Assumption Catholic School, Brookhaven: to purchase new mobile stool cafeteria tables.

Queen of Angels Catholic School, Roswell: to implement the CENTEGIX CrisisAlert system that enables instant campus wide security response on campus.

St. Catherine of Siena Catholic School, Kennesaw: to purchase ClearTouch Boards for classrooms.

St. John Neumann Regional Catholic School, Lilburn: to renovate the restrooms by the school gym.

St. John the Evangelist Catholic School, Hapeville: to purchase a Hallow membership for every family at the school and to purchase an engineering kit for lower school students.

St. Joseph Catholic School, Marietta: to fund multiple safety upgrades to ensure the well-being of all students, faculty, staff, and visitors.

St. Joseph Catholic School, Athens: to support the CENTEGIX CrisisAlert system.

St. Jude the Apostle Catholic School, Sandy Springs: to purchase decodable books for Pre-K through 2nd grade classes.

St. Mary's Academy, Fayetteville: to provide a playground shade for lower level students and staff.

St. Mary's Catholic School, Rome: to replace aged-out teacher laptops due to the Windows 11 update.

St. Peter Claver Regional Catholic School, Decatur: to purchase wall-mounted interactive whiteboards.

St. Pius X Catholic High School, Atlanta: to purchase and install the CENTEGIX CrisisAlert system.

St. Thomas More Catholic School, Decatur: to replace the outdoor electronic message center (sign).
